Fordham University SCHOOL OF LAW 1997

Summation

Joseph A. O'Hare S.J., President

John D. Feerick, Dean

Each academic year brings new celebrations to the Fordham Law School community. Both inside and outside of the school, there were major events unfolding. On the outside this year, President Bill Clinton was re-elected and the New York Yankees won the World Series.

On the inside, we have seen much more than just new lights in the cafeteria and a re-designed fourth floor. We have experienced the excitement of a legal education. Our characters have matured dramatically having endured the socratic method, first-year exams and the writing competition.

We have made friends that will last a lifetime. Some of them will become our future partners, some will become our children's godparents and yet others will become part of our families.

As we leave Fordham to pursue a career we started working on just a few years ago, we are confident in knowing that we have left our mark on Fordham Law School just as it has left its mark on us.

The Fordham Student Sponsored Fellowship, Inc. offers financial grants to students doing public interest work. During the sixth Annual Goods and Services Auction, a total of 241 volunteers assisted in the Auction, the phon-athon, the pledge drive, and the Halloween raffle, raising a total of over $115,000.
